

FALL CSA – CALLIOPE FARM

2020 COMMUNITY SUPPORTED AGRICULTURE

Calliope Farm is a family operated farm producing certified organic produce in pristine fields on the banks of the Black River in Littlerock, WA, located 15 miles south of Olympia. In operation since 2007, It is our vision to produce a wide variety of affordable staples as well as gourmet specialty crops for our community, while sustaining and improving a healthy farm ecosystem.

CSA subscribers receive a freshly harvested and diverse box of produce once per week during the growing season. All of the produce is grown by us and subscribers pick up boxes at conveniently located drop sites. The CSA model is a vital way for customers to support local farms by providing early season cashflow, by sharing in some of the risk and reward typically shouldered by farmers, and by creating a foundation of community around local food producers.

Dates: The FALL CSA season begins November 3rd and continues for 8 weeks until December 22nd. Pickup is on Tuesdays in the late afternoon/evening at various drop sites in Olympia. Winter shares will likely be offered as well, stay tuned for more information.

Price: We offer two size shares: $220 for the regular share ($27.50 per week) or $300 for the large share ($37.50 per week). Regular shares are designed for 2 people and large shares will have all the same items plus a few extra bunches or pounds of popular staple items like lettuce, carrots, and potatoes.

Payment: Payment by check is most convenient for our farm. We also happily accept EBT payments which are facilitated by the Olympia Farmers Market. Please contact the farm for details on that option. We are not currently set up for online payment, but look out for it in the near future. Full payment is due at the time of registration.

Vacation/missed pickups: For pre-planned absences, you may prorate your subscription price. Dates must be chosen and confirmed with us prior to the start of the season. We do not offer a refund or credit for missed pickups. For un-scheduled absences we ask that you coordinate to have a friend pick up your share.
